

REMODELISTA DAILY

GET INSPIRED

10 Easy Pieces
Steal This Look
Architect Visits & House Calls

Palette & Paints

» Remodelista Daily

- Accessories
- Antiques & Vintage
- Appliances
- Bath
- Bedroom
- Children's Rooms
- Deals
- Design Sleuth
- DIY
- Domestic Science
- Fabrics & Linens
- Faucets & Fixtures
- Furniture
- Hardware
- High/Low Design
- House Gift
- Kitchen
- Lighting
- Living & Dining
- Office
- Outdoors
- Palette & Paints
- Press
- Shopper's Diary
- Slow Design
- Storage
- Tabletop
- Tile & Countertop
- Videos
- Walls, Windows & Floors
- All Remodelista Daily

Shopper's Diary: Len Carella Ceramics at Bardessono

From Sarah

Len Carella is a shoe designer by day, but the rest of his time is given over to ceramics. He uses porcelain or black mountain clay to create his one-of-a-kind pieces, adding leather and braided ties to create an intriguing juxtaposition of materials. Carella is currently showing a range of his pieces at the Shop at Bardessono in Yountville, CA. Prices range from $40 to $425.

September 17, 2009

Add to Design File Comments \(2\) Email to a Friend Share / Save

Related Posts

- » Shopper's Diary: Commune Design at Heath Ceramics
- » 10 Easy Pieces: Classic Tea Kettles
- » Shopper's Diary: The Shop at Bardessono
- » Shopper's Diary: Heath Ceramics in LA
- » 10 Easy Pieces: Free-Standing 36-Inch Kitchen Ranges